July 8, 2040 Movie Night

6:30 pm | Granite Street | Prescott

A movie night under the stars, starting with food vendors and a bar, and once the sun sets, a movie under the stars. The event is to generate and inspire people to make a change to help the planet and make a difference. Award-winning director Damon Gameau (That Sugar Film) embarks on a journey to explore what the future could look like by the year 2040 if we simply embraced the best solutions already available to us to improve our planet and shifted them rapidly into the mainstream. Structured as a visual letter to his 4-year-old daughter, Damon blends traditional documentary with dramatized sequences and high-end visual effects to create a vision board of how these solutions could regenerate the world for future generations. July 13, Introduction to Craft Chocolate 101

6:45–8:15 pm | Orinoco Chocolate Company | Prescott

Have you ever wondered where cocoa, the main ingredient in chocolate, comes from? Have you ever wondered how chocolate is made? Have you ever been curious how professionals taste and evaluate chocolate? What do terms like 'bean-to-bar' and 'craft chocolate' mean? Over the course of this class, host Clay Gordon, author of Discover Chocolate and a professional chocolate critic for over 20 years, will guide you through each step in the process of making chocolate – from the cocoa farm to the factory to the finer points of tasting (all of Orinoco Chocolate Company's bars will be sampled) and buying chocolate, a journey that will be accompanied by personal anecdotes from his travels to cocoa farms around the globe. This class will be about 90 minutes long and will include a hands-on component, where you will see, taste, smell, feel, and learn about craft chocolate. For ages 10 and up, please. Included in every class fee is a $10 credit to bring home any one of the craft chocolate bars Orinoco Chocolate Co. makes. (Credit must be used on the class date.)
